

RESEARCH POLICY

NIKHIL BANGA SIKSHAN MAHAVIDYALAYA

Research Policy

Teaching, research, and extension should all be required activities at every academic institution. The academic activities that enable the institution attain excellence in the sphere of education are led by research. The Nikhil Banga Sikshan Mahavidyalaya's faculty, students, and staff will study and teach more effectively as a result of research and development initiatives that serve to build and spread new knowledge channels and encourage innovation. Research is the cornerstone of knowledge; it creates cutting-edge facilities, encourages research publications, fosters collaborations, and becomes a part of a vibrant community that supports the mission's goals. The Nikhil Banga Sikshan Mahavidyalaya developed and applied its research policy after taking these factors into account.

Purpose

The goal of the research policy is to foster a culture of research among the teachers and to develop students' aptitude for it. The policy will act as a general framework for all permitted research activity. In order to further the college's vision and mission, it also seeks to identify research thrust areas with social value. The Research Policy also places a strong emphasis on contributions to society and the country as a whole.

Objectives

The Principal objectives of the Research Policy are as follows:

1. To raise the desired level of awareness about research among the Nikhil Banga Sikshan Mahavidyalaya faculty.
2. Through a variety of research projects and programmes, to create the proper type of research culture.
3. To build a research centre with a focus on socially relevant issues across all disciplines.
4. To encourage faculty members to conduct and publish a variety of socially and academically significant research initiatives in the areas of physical education and teacher preparation.
5. To raise public awareness through various research activities and by properly promoting the college's upcoming socially beneficial research projects.

Research Policy

The college must have a clearly defined research standard that guides teachers and any other workers who are involved.
