Report of First Staff Excursion to Digha

Place: Digha, West Bengal

Date: 09.01.25 – 11.01.25

Excursion Coordinator: Dr. Sanjay Bhunia & Dr. Susanta Jana

Staff participants: 13 including Principal

Building camaraderie and boosting employee morale are two important goals of staff excursions. Colleagues can connect in a fun and laid-back setting during these activities, which provide a respite from the daily grind. This year the staff members of Nikhil Banga Sikshan Mahavidyalaya plan to go Digha on and from 9.1.25 to 11.1.25 to boost themselves with energy and motivation. Staff members started their journey on 9.1.25 at 6.30 pm from Bishnupur railway station and reached their destination at 11.30 pm on the same day.

Reached at Digha

On Sea

Bank of Bay of Bengal

On the very next day all staff members went to Old Digha Beach to complete their bathing but few of them enjoyed it may be due to cold. After that they went to Sankarpur Beach by Toto which is very enjoyable for the members. After returning from Sankarpur beach, a heavy lunch was completed with varieties type of sea fish as managed by Dr. Sanjay Bhunia and Subrata Kundu from the local market. Beautiful moment enjoyed by the members at the evening of the same day by walking on the bank of Bay of Bengal. Completing dinner with sea food all the members went to bed.

On the last day some members went to beach for a walk and rest of them still in hotel to enjoy the workless moments. After dinner all the members go to their respective destination with good memories of the trip.
