Report on celebration of Baise Shraban on 08.08.2025

On this day, we commemorate the death anniversary of Biswakabi Rabindranath Tagore, who used contextual modernism to transform Bengali music and literature as well as the arts of the Indian subcontinent. Tagore passed away on August 7, 1941, at the age of 80. However, on 22 Srabon of the Bengal calendar, people in Bengal commemorate the anniversary of his death. At our college, we cordially commemorated Rabindra Nath Tagore's death anniversary. The welcome song was performed by the college students to kick off the programs. The Principal explained how Tagore faced the death of dearest one in his life and how he create his creation after their demise. In the cultural programme Mrs Susmita Mondal presented her ~~dance~~ mind blowing dance. The Rabindra Sangeet was performed next in the performance, accompanied by dances performed by the college students.
