Report on celebration of Republic Day on 26.01.2026

Introduction: India's struggle for independence and the establishment of an independent state is commemorated on this day. It exhibits democratic values, vast cultural diversity, and unity in variation. Republic Day is an important National holiday in India. On January 26, 1950, the British-made Government of India Act, 1935 was superseded by the Indian Constitution, which was subsequently formally ratified and came to represent India's transition to republicanism. It represents the transition from a colony to a sovereign democratic country. Republic Day reminds us of our commitment to democracy, equality, and fairness. It represents our responsibilities and rights as citizens of India. Our Constitution is the cornerstone of our nation.

Programme : In keeping with the spirit of Indian nationalism, Nikhil Banga Sikshan Mahavidyalaya observed the 77th Republic Day on January 26, 2026, at 8.30 AM under the guidance of Dr. Sanjay Bhunia. Dr. Bhunia hoisted the National flag. After that, a tribute to national heroes was offered, and teachers and students from both B.P.Ed. and B.Ed. Dr. Bhunia gave an explanation on the significance of Republic Day. He gave a quick explanation of the Preamble of the Indian Constitution. He also thanked and commended the martyrs who sacrificed their lives to protect the nation. Joyodhoni of the Martyrs marked the program's conclusion.
