Report of Post-Internship Conference-2026 on 30.06.2026

Introduction: On 30th June 2026, a Post-Internship Meeting was held at Seminar Hall of Nikhil Banga Sikshan Mahavidyalaya, to give student teachers a chance to think back on their school internship experiences. The gathering provided a forum for discussing difficulties encountered during teaching practice, exchanging classroom experiences, and assessing the program's overall efficacy. The initiative involved active participation from mentor teachers, student teachers, teacher educators, and the Principal.

Organization: Every resource person shared their opinions and suggestions regarding the four-month school internship program and its outcomes. The Principal congratulated each head of school before to the start of the session. Group leaders from each of the nine schools were there to talk about their learning experiences over the four-month internship program. First-year students were also there to discuss their experiences with the Teaching Aids display and the post-internship conference. With a vote of appreciation, the college principal adjourned the conference.
