Report on observation of Prayan Divas of Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherjee on 23.06.26

Introduction: On June 23, 2026, India celebrated Balidan Diwas, the 73rd anniversary of the death of Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee, the renowned scholar, statesman, and founder of the Bharatiya Jana Sangh. High-profile political tributes, memorial events, and important state-level declarations highlighting his efforts to national integration were all part of the day. In this regard, on June 23, 2026, Nikhil Banga Sikshan Mahavidyalaya respectfully commemorated Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee's 73rd death anniversary.

Programme: Dr. Subhas Sarkar, a former Union Minister of State for Education, Government of India, lit the ceremonial lamp to start the program, and the Principal, teachers, staff, and students, along with Chief Guest Dr. Subhas Sarkar, offered flowers in honour of Dr. Mukherjee's portrait. There was a pause in his recollection. Speaking to the audience, Dr. Subhas Sarkar, a distinguished expert in the subject of Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherjee, emphasized Mukherjee's contributions to public service, education, and national life. The Principal gave a speech about his position as one of Calcutta University's youngest vice chancellors, while other faculty members spoke about his contributions to public affairs and his tenure as India's first Minister for Industry and Supply. Through their interactions with the resource, students actively participated in the program. A vote of thanks was held at the end of the program to thank everyone who helped make the event a success.

Conclusion: Students were motivated by the occasion to value Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee's example of unselfish service, devotion, and patriotism. All things considered, the observance was successful, educational, and meaningful, giving the attendees a better knowledge of Dr. Mukherjee's life and contributions.
