Report on Essay competition as the part of observation of Dr. Syama Prasad

Mookerjee Smritipaksha on 04.07.2026

In honour of Dr. Syama Prasad Mookerjee's birth anniversary, IQAC, Nikhil Banga Sikshan Mahavidyalaya, held an essay competition on "Contribution of Dr. Syama Prasad Mookerjee in Indian Politics" on July 6, 2026. The program's goals were to improve student-teachers' writing and critical thinking abilities while motivating them to comprehend Dr. Mookerjee's vision, patriotism, and educational contributions.

During the competition's brief opening session, the principal emphasized the importance of Dr. Syama Prasad Mookerjee's contribution to India's political, social, and educational advancement. Participants were urged by faculty members to consider his principles of leadership, national integration, and commitment to public service.

120 student-teachers eagerly took part in the tournament. Dr. Mookerjee's contributions to education, his goal for national unity, and his lasting legacy were among the many facets of his life that were the subject of the articles. The participants showed creativity, critical thinking, and proficient writing abilities.

A panel of academics assessed the articles based on their subject, uniqueness, structure, language, and presentation. The top entries were acknowledged and valued, and the winners received certificates. Additionally, the judges praised each participant for their genuine efforts and well-considered remarks. The results are:
