Report on observation of "Sanskrit Divas" on 01.09.2026

Introduction: In order to raise awareness of the significance of the Sanskrit language and its great contributions to Indian culture, literature, philosophy, science, and education, IQAC, Nikhil Banga Sikshan Mahavidyalaya hosted an event to mark Sanskrit Divas in compliance with the Govt. of West Bengal order vide no. 1409(31) – Edn (U) dated 27.08.2026. The principal, Teachers, Non Teaching Staffs, students of both B.Ed and B.P.Ed of the institution attended the program.

The Programme : The programme started with chanting of Sanskrit slokas. The Principal gave a welcome speech to start the programme. The audience were given an explanation of the significance of Sanskrit Divas emphasizing Sanskrit's status as one of India's oldest classical languages and its crucial role in maintaining the country's intellectual and cultural legacy. An educational presentation on "The Importance of Sanskrit in Indian Culture and Education" was given by the Resource person, Dr. Chirashree Mukherjee, Associate Professor, Ramananda College. The speaker talked on how Sanskrit literature has influenced philosophy, grammar, literature, mathematics, astronomy, and traditional wisdom, among other disciplines. The importance of Sanskrit in the modern era and the necessity of preserving and advancing the language among future generations were also highlighted in the lecture.

Conclusion: The Sanskrit Divas celebration was successfully held in a setting that was both academically and culturally stimulating. It gave the students a chance to recognize Sanskrit's priceless contribution to Indian knowledge traditions and civilization.
