Report on observation of Gandhi Jayanti on 02.10.2026

Introduction: Nikhil Banga Sikshan Mahavidyalaya celebrated the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi on 2 October 2026 with full enthusiasm and respect on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti. The program aimed at spreading the ideals of truth, non-violence, cleanliness, discipline and social responsibility amongst the students and the staff. The program started with a tribute to Mahatma Gandhi. Students and teachers remembered his contribution to the freedom movement of India and his message of peace, simplicity and cleanliness. Speeches and discussions were held to emphasize the significance of Gandhian values in our daily life.

Tree plantation program was organized in the college premises as an important part of the celebration. Students, teachers and staff actively participated in planting saplings and took a pledge to protect and nurture them. The event demonstrated the importance of conservation of nature and the responsibility of each individual toward nature. A cleanliness drive was also organized in and around the college campus. Students and staff cleaned the classrooms, corridors, the surrounding areas and other parts of the campus. The activity was an extension of Gandhi's emphasis on cleanliness and it encouraged students to keep the surroundings clean and healthy. The celebration ended with a commitment to uphold the ideals of cleanliness, environmental protection, cooperation and social service in everyday life. The program was meaningful and educational and left the participants with a renewed sense of responsibility toward society and the environment.

Conclusion: Nikhil Banga Sikshan Mahavidyalaya Celebrates Gandhi Jayanti with Great Success The combination of tribute, tree plantation and cleanliness activities made the occasion purposeful and helped students understand that the Gandhian values can be practised through simple actions in everyday life.
